ORGANIZATION'S PLANS OUTLINED

PLEDGES SIGNED UP

CAMPAIGN IS ENDORSED AND NUMBER AGREE TO ASSIST IN MEMBER DRIVE

Business and professional men of Glendale, as well as other citizens, met in the automobile sales rooms of Chambers & Felts, 228 South Brand boulevard, last night, in response to a call issued by the Citizens' committee in charge of the Chamber of Commerce reorganization plans.

The reconstruction of the Chamber of Commerce, as proposed by the Citizens' committee, was endorsed by fifty or more present and pledge cards, in which it was agreed by the signer to work three hours a day for four days during the first week in February to secure a membership and an income, were signed by forty-nine. This meant a practically complete endorsement of the plan, for several firms were represented by two or more men, but, probably, but one of the firm signed.

Further, as the result of the enthusiasm developed, several speakers declared that, with the proper co-operation, Glendale will have a Chamber of Commerce building of its own within three years, and, as suggested by Jesse Smith, chairman of the Citizens' committee and who presided at the last night's meeting, it is probable the campaign workers will adopt the slogan: "Our own building in three years."

Plan Is Given Outline

Chairman Smith, in calling the meeting to order, briefly outlined the plan proposed by the committee, following the four meetings that had been held, and submitted it for rejection, approval or alteration. The original plan, as already announced by the committee in The Evening News, was accepted and the campaign will be conducted along the lines suggested.

SCHOOL ADDITION

INTERMEDIATE CLASS ROOMS WILL BE READY IN TWO WEEKS FROM MONDAY

Two weeks from Monday, when the new school term begins, the class rooms in the addition to the Intermediate school will be opened to the pupils.

Work on this addition is progressing satisfactorily, and the class rooms will no doubt be finished a few days before the beginning of the new term; but it is deemed best by the teachers that the confusion incident to the change come at the beginning rather than at the end of a term.

There are five class rooms in the new part of the building, four large, real school rooms, and a smaller one which will also be used as a class room. The cafeteria is in the basement of this new part of the school.

Luncheon Is Planned

It is hoped that the cafeteria may be ready for use by the beginning of the new term, to some extent, at least, although it will probably not be fully equipped for some time. Estimates secured by the P.-T. A. and the school board show that proper equipment for the cafeteria will cost $2000. The Intermediate P.-T. A. has already set on foot plans to raise money to aid the board in the equipment of the cafeteria. To this end they will give a luncheon on Friday to the school children. Mothers of the eighth grade students will furnish the materials for the luncheon menu and will also serve it. The proceeds will go to the cafeteria fund.

ORGANIZATION MAKES DENIAL

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 13—Denying that their organization has acted in restraint of trade, as charged by the federal trade commission in its report to congress, members of the West Coast Lumbermen's association here were inclined to ridicule the commission's findings.

"Tre federal trade commission was originally intended to assist in the development of industry," said A. W. Cooper, secretary of the Western Pine Manufacturers' association, "but it has degenerated into an agency for the promotion of petty annoyance to legitimate trade."

THREE MILLION RUSSIANS TO ENTER BATTLE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, Jan. 13.—More than 3,000,000 men will be thrown into fighting along the Russian boundary early this spring, according to information given out by French military experts here today.

Their advices indicated that the fighting front will extend from 200 to 250 miles.

The Bolsheviki are expected to launch several major spring drives, French authorities said.

Meeting them will be troops from several Balkan states rallying in support of Roumania, Czecho-Slovakia, Poland and perhaps the border states, which Russia wishes to reclaim.

FEAR VIOLENCE TO OFFICER'S ASSAILANTS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

REDDING, Cal., Jan. 13.—Fearing possible violence, authorities during the night spirited Owen Davis and George Schulte, arrested for the shooting of Marshal Rieves of Redding, from the Red Bluff jail to Oroville, where they were held today. Both of the men were said to have made a confession.

Rieves was said to be near death today. Being informed of the high state of public feeling at Redding, officers did not carry out their announced intention of taking the two men from Kennett to Redding. Instead they were moved to Red Bluff.

MEASURE IS DIRECTED AT CORPORATIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 13.—A bill aimed to reach corporations owning or leasing large sections of land was introduced in the senate today by Claude Purkitt of Willows.

The act would prevent corporations from owning more than 1000 acres of farming land or 2000 acres of grazing land.

"Corporations and rich persons are fast gaining control of all the farming and grazing land of California," said Purkitt. "Something must be done to stop this practice and give the small man a chance."

NOW IN HOME

DR. AND MRS. C. M. CALDERWOOD OCCUPYING RESIDENCE AT 370 SALEM STREET

Dr. and Mrs. Charles M. Calderwood are now comfortably ensconced in the home they have purchased at 370 Salem street. Mrs. Calderwood's mother, Mrs. Helen A. Hanscom, has come here from Haverhill, Massachusetts, to make her home with them.

Dr. Calderwood accepted the pastorate of the First Congregational church about two months ago, coming here from Massachusetts. He seems to have won instant favor in the community, for the church is filled to capacity at every service, and the building of a new and larger church is being discussed.

The new pastor is a middle westerner, reared in Iowa, and received his early education there. He was graduated from Grinnell college, and also from Yale, where he received his degree. He taught school in South Dakota for three years. He was assistant pastor of one of the largest New York City churches for three years, was pastor of a Connecticut church for six years and of a church in the old, historic town of Lee, Massachusetts, for three years.

From Line of Ministers

Dr. Calderwood comes from a long line of ministers; his grandfathers for eight generations were clergymen in Scotland.

Mrs. Calderwood is a graduate of Simmons college, Boston, and also of Mt. Holyoke; she has also had the advantage of studying abroad. Both Dr. and Mrs. Calderwood have traveled much, both in their own country and in Europe; in view of this fact, it is considered by the congregation all the more complimentary to Glendale to have them say it is a lovely place for a home, and that it is their wish to remain here permanently.

DEATH OF SISTER

MRS. A. E. PATCH GETS WORD OF DEMISE, FIFTH ONE TO OCCUR IN TWO YEARS

Mrs. A. E. Patch of 125 North Belmont street has received a letter telling of the death of her sister, Mrs. J. D. Patch of Plattsmouth, Neb. The deceased was married to a cousin of Mrs. Patch's husband and was a daughter of Judge Reed, a Nebraska pioneer, a member of the first legislature of the state of Nebraska and one of the men who assisted in laying out the original city of Lincoln.

Mrs. Patch visited two sisters in Plattsmouth just a year ago and since that time both have died. In the past two years she has been five times bereaved having lost her husband, a son, daughter and two sisters.

ANNUAL MEETING

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH HAS DINNER AND SESSION; NEW OFFICERS ARE CHOSEN

The annual meeting of the First Congregational church last evening was preceded by a 6 o'clock dinner given by the Women's Auxiliary of the church, and served by the young people of the intermediate department of the church school.

Heads of committees were elected as follows: Chairman of the committee on evangelism, C. H. Andrew; chairman of committee on religious education, Mrs. W. D. McRae; chairman of committee on missions, Mrs. C. M. Van Dyke; chairman of social service committee, B. J. Robison, Jr.; nominating committee, Hartley Shaw, Mrs. S. R. Frazee, A. S. Chase.

CLEARS MYSTERY

AUTOMOBILE WRECK CAUSED BY DESIRE TO OBTAIN INSURANCE, CLAIMED

The mystery surrounding the finding of a wrecked automobile on the Southern Pacific railroad tracks near Glendale on December 29, as told at the time in The Evening News, is solved, according to the belief of the sheriff's office.

Everett Robinson, driver of a stage between Los Angeles and San Diego, is said to have made a confession yesterday to the authorities in which he stated that he drove his high-priced automobile on the railroad tracks while a rapidly moving freight train was approaching, then jumped and ran from the scene.

The automobile was struck and made a complete loss. Robinson then, the authorities say, attempted to collect $2,200 insurance. The officers say it is the first case of its kind called to their attention.

Others Are Questioned

Leo Hilderbrand, an acquaintance of Robinson's, told the officers Robinson had asked him to aid in destroying the car, but that he refused. R. W. Drake was questioned by the officers and declared he was with Robinson at the time of the supposed accident.

It is claimed that financial difficulties led Robinson to the action. He is held in the county jail on the charge of suspicion of destroying insured property.

CHAPTER HOLDS LARGE MEETING

TALKS ARE GIVEN

STATE PRESIDENT IS HERE TO ATTEND SESSION; LUNCHEON IS SERVED TO GUESTS

Mrs. Lulu Smith, 302 North Maryland avenue, was hostess yesterday to Chapter L, P. E. O., at a most interesting and profitable meeting.

The morning session, which convened at half past ten, was devoted to business matters. The chapter voted to give $10 for Near East relief and to give a like amount to the home for undernourished children which is being established at Monte Vista. At their next meeting the ladies of this chapter will have a "towel shower" for the kitchen of this children's home, each lady to bring either a hand towel or a tea towel.

At noon an elegantly appointed luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. Smith, assisted by Mrs. Lyda Border, Mrs. Elizabeth Read and Miss Isabel Isgrigg.

The program of the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. Alma Danford, and the topic was "Women in Literature." Mrs. Danford urged that women read something deeper than fiction; she mentioned as some of the best work by women authors and essayists for home reading the writings of Bernie Babcock, Miss Montague and Agnes Repplier.

Visitors Are Called Upon

Fillowing Mrs. Danford's talk and its discussion, the president, Mrs. Fern A. Roberts, called for words of greeting from distinguished guests of the day: State President Mrs. Lillian Garett of Pomona, Past President Mrs. Marian Garvin of Los Angeles, State Organizer Mrs. Olive P. Cramer of Los Angeles, Mrs. Bowen, president of Chapter U of Burbank, Mrs. Putnam, president of Chapter A. T., Los Angeles; Mrs. Wattles, president of chapter A. H., Glendale, and Mrs. Cross, president of chapter B. A., Glendale.

Other guests were Mrs. Townsend of chapter A. T., Los Angeles; Mrs. Hobbs, Mrs. Dorothy Smith and Mrs. Logan of Chapter A. H., Glendale, and Mrs. Edna McGee of San Gabriel, who is a charter member of chapter L.

Mrs. Ann Patrick Bartlett will be hostess to chapter L at their meeting next Wednesday, when the members will convene at her home at half past ten, to sew for Red Cross relief work.

ELECTION LAWS

CHANGES ARE CONTEMPLATED IN PRESENT RULES BY LEGISLATIVE BILLS

Reports received by The Evening News from Sacramento are to the effect that radical changes in the election laws are contemplated in bills now in the assembly, and more radical changes are planned in bills yet to be introduced.

Among the bills is one calling for reformation of the direct primary law. The chief change planned is that no person can seek the nomination of any other party than that which he is a member of.

Would Stand for Six Years

Under a bill introduced by Assemblyman Hawes, San Francisco, registration of voters would stand for six years instead of two as at present. If passed, registration costs, which amount to approximately $100,000 every two years in Los Angeles and San Francisco, Hawes said would be saved and to every municipality in the state two-thirds of their registration costs would be cut during this period.

Under another bill proposed by Hawes, it would not be necessary to draw election clerks from the precinct in which they must serve, but only from the district.

He also proposed an amendment that would permit a graduated scale of pay for election clerks.

LIFE IN PRISON

SLAYER OF BURBANK OFFICER IS FOUND GUILTY AFTER TRIAL BEFORE JURY

Life imprisonment was the sentence given Dominico Gays for the killing of Robert Norman, deputy city marshal at Burbank, as the result of five hours' deliberation by a jury in Superior Judge Willis' courtroom last night.

The accused, tired after the terrific strain he has undergone since his arrest by a former army "buddy" in Arizona last September, admitted on the stand he shot Norman and, in the same affray, wounded Constable Henry Purrier.

While returning to Los Angeles with the officers sent for him, Gays pleaded to be permitted to end his life. He feared his trial, he told them.

Raphael Dalo, accused jointly with Gays of the crime, will be tried at a later date. He is being held, without bail, in the county jail.

"I did not shoot until after one of them had shot at me," was Gays' statement on the stand yesterday afternoon. "They commanded me to hold up my hands—I did not know they were officers until after they were shot."

ALL SIGN UP

EVERY MEMBER OF BOARD OF FREEHOLDERS PUTS NAME ON CHARTER DRAFT

The proposed charter for the city of Glendale is now on file with City Clerk Sherer and by him will be presented to the board of city trustees in session tonight.

The charter was filed by Mrs. Mabel L. Tight, one of the members of the board of freeholders. It was given to her by Bert P. Woodard, chairman of the board, to secure the signatures of George H. Bentley, C. W. Ingledue, Henry Johnston and C. D. Lusby, members of the board unable to be present when the other freeholders attached their signatures to the document. Each of the four signed the charter draft and it was then filed with the city clerk by Mrs. Tight.

It is presumed that the board of trustees tonight will take steps to call the election on March 29, as provided for by the freeholders' board, and also provide for the publication of the charter, both in the city official paper and in pamphlet form, as required by law.

WEATHER FORECAST

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 13—The official weather forecast. Tonight and Friday fair. Heavy frost in morning.

LAYING MAIN

WATER PIPE IS BEING PUT IN ON GRAND VIEW AVENUE; MEETING PLANNED

The 16-inch water main from the city pumping plant on the San Fernando road up Grand View avenue to Tenth street and then west on that street to the new reservoir that will be constructed at the southeast corner of Tenth and Vine avenue, on the seven acres recently purchased there for that purpose, is now being laid, and when the work is completed and the reservoir in operation the residents of that section of the city will be well provided for in the way of water for domestic and irrigation purposes.

A municipal water district will be formed and bonds voted to provide laterals on all the streets. Then with a numbering system for houses provided, to conform to the numbering in the main city, Grand View district will take on full city airs.

Vote To Be Taken

A meeting will be held on January 25, as now planned, to vote on forming a municipal water district and providing a bond issue with which to buy material and lay laterals on all the streets of the district.

The interest on the bonds is all the property owners will have to pay and that only until such time as the district becomes populous enough for the revenues from water service to pay said interest.

DIVIDES PROFITS

PREACHER GOES IN BUSINESS AND PUTS GOLDEN RULE TO WORK EFFECTIVELY

CINCINNATI—The golden rule is at work every day here in the big clothing factory of Arthur Nash, at one time a preacher.

When he went into business he made up his mind to practice what he had preached. So he put the golden rule into his factory, and by it he measures all his relations with his men. He never has had a strike. He invites his workers to examine the company's books to make sure they are getting a square deal. He divides profits with them.

The golden rule is catching. The other day Nash's 500 employes held a meeting. They had heard that many clothing workers were out of jobs. The Nash factory is still running well.

So it was proposed and unanimously carried that every man in the plant should pledge himself to give up his job for a month to any needy fellow craftsman who may apply.

Catch Spirit of It

"It's just treating the other fellow the way we'd like to be treated," replies Ray Carson, chief designer. "We've seen the golden rule in practice here and we've caught the spirit of it.

"You see, in this factory, man isn't just a hand. The boss goes around the factory and consults with us. Every man feels he amounts to something; is a part of the firm, in fact.

"He's the kind of a boss you work with, instead of for.

"When workmen elsewhere were striking for higher wages, the boss called the men of this shop together.

"He said conditions at that time made it impossible for him to increase wages, but he would make good as soon as conditions got better. Would they stick with him?

"Sure, they all stuck. They had that much faith in him.

Net Profits Are Divided

"And he more than made good all he promised. As soon as he could afford it he started a plan of dividing his profits with us. After the firm has paid stated dividends on its preferred stock and put away so much for reserve, net profits are divided between the employes and the common stockholders.

"This division gives each of us about $4 a week. And, besides, every one here is paid as good as union wages and some do better than that.

"Business isn't as good as it was, and so it may be necessary to reduce prices to get the business.

"And so the men the other day voted a reduction in the wages of every man getting over $5 a day, if that becomes necessary."

FLYING FARMER

OWNS LARGE FARM AND USES AIRPLANE TO ASSIST HIM IN DIRECTING WORK

SIKESTON, Mo.—The "Flying Dutchman" has soared from fiction to fact in the person of the "flying farmer."

He is Leonard McMullin, aged thirty, whose 2000 acres of farm land are divided into three tracts some twenty miles apart.

In this part of southeastern Missouri, huge reclamation projects have transformed a vast swamp into one of the richest farm regions in the country. The farmers can afford airplanes. And they have them. There were at one time six licensed air pilots in this town.

McMullin was first to take to the air. An automobile, at some seasons of the year, could not reach parts of his farm, in spite of drainage. The airplane reaches all of them at any time.

Picks Up Some Freight

McMullin visits his lands nearly every day. At each stop he generally picks up a little freight until, when he has made the rounds, he is carrying a basket of eggs, some horrified hens, or a live hog, on the wings of his machine.

"The plan is just as reliable as an automobile," says McMullin. "I have never had a wreck, and only four or five forced landings. Trains only go at certain hours, but the plan is ready to go whenever I am.

"Once, when a couple of neighboring farmers were badly hurt, it was the airplane that brought the doctor in time to save them from bleeding to death.

"I don't say that I do everything with the plane that is to be done about the farm, but it has proved its practical value."

Tendencies in Slang

There is comfort for those who abhor slang in the observations made by one who has recently investigated the subject. The observer finds that none of the bywords or parrot phrases now in vogue originated during the last year, and holds out the hope to language purists that the passion for slang is passing. This is an unjustified conclusion. As the observer himself intimates, there might be cause for concern if the creation of slang were to cease, for Prof. Brander Matthews and other language students will tell you that the constant addition of slang to the language is a sign that it is a virile, growing thing; and the corollary is that when slang ceases to creep into the language the language is moribund. We may be passing through a period of quiescence, so far as slang is concerned, but the fondness for it, or the need of it, has by no means passed.

Facile as the English tongue is for most uses, it is not yet perfect. There are many ideas which can be expressed with it only in an awkward way; and the function of a considerable part of the newly coined words and phrases which find their way into the language as slang is to simplify the expression of these ideas, or to make it possible to express them in a way that is not trite. When slang serves this purpose it often becomes good usage. If it fills no need it soon dies.

Cowboys and Flivvers

Those funny ltlle things that run along so blithely where nothing else but a goat would dare have done more than break the wrists of one-third of the population of the United States. They have driven the cowboy from Montana, his last stand in North America.

Three of the rangers appeared in the clerk's office of the United States court in Kansas City the other day and applied for passports. They will ride the pampas of the Argentine, Uruguay, and Paraguay. The flivver has spelled their doom in this country.

The final insult to this particular trio came, they told the reporters, when their boss wanted to list them as chauffeurs. So they donned their chaps, which they wear with an ease no movie hero can attain, hitched up their belts and started south.

Perhaps these cowpunchers will find the same wild, adventurous life there that their predecessors enjoyed on the western plains forty years ago. Perhaps Faro Nell, Cherokee Bill and Hank Starr will have their South American prototypes. But however that may be, lovers of the tales of the old west will feel that in the departure of this rear-guard of a passing army if heroes of the range, our west has lost. The flivver may be efficient, even in cowpunching. But no one who has cussed the things will claim they are romantic.

Mr. Shower talked on the subject of Dr. Miller's lectures and after a discussion, the Federation voted to engage him for a course of five lectures.

Sale of Used Cars

There has been a decided slump lately in the prices of used cars, because, it is explained, this happens to be a rather quiet period in the automotive business generally.

Therefore, dealers declare, some splendid bargains may be picked up in used cars. Special sales are being held and a number of people looking for real bargains in used cars are said to have found very satisfactory bargains.

Various makes are on sale, according to announcements made in the advertising columns of The Evening News, and those contemplating the purchase of an automobile are advised by dealers to look over the advertised bargains.

PLANS OUTLINED

membership and a fixed income, Chairman Smith pointed out that Glendale is now missing opportunities to secure more residents, industries and civic betterments. He urged that the almost continual solicitation of funds for various projects be stopped and that a suitable and fixed income be assured to a reorganized Chamber of Commerce and concerted action be taken, as an organization, for furthering the community's interests.

James O. Stephenson, secured by the committee to direct the campaign, gave an outline of Chamber of Commerce work and, in detail, described the proposed campaign.

It is proposed that active membership dues be fixed at $25 a year. In addition, it is proposed to accept associate members, who will give financial support on the basis of twelve hours' earning time.

It is planned to secure at least 600 active members and at least 1,200 associate or reserve members, Mr. Stephenson stated. This will effect a fund estimated at about $25,000 for the first year.

Active members will elect ten directors, the directors will select a presiding officer and a paid secretary. Reserve members may attend meetings, serve on committees and vote on referenda concerning the city, county or state, it was declared.

A written statement from the committee was furnished those present last night and copies are available for others interested, the committee states.

The Citizens' Committee is composed of Jesse Smith, chairman; G. H. Bentley, C. E. Chambers, Jr.; C. C. Cooper, A. R. Eastman, E. P. Hayward, V. M. Hollister, Roy L. Kent, C. E. Neale, J. A. Newton and L. G. Scovern.

General Endorsement Is Given

Chairman Smith called on members if the committee and they gave endorsement to the plan. He also called on others present and they, too, spoke in favor of it. He invited anyone who wished to say anything on the subject, or to ask any questions, to speak and several, seeking information, did so.

Albert D. Pearce declared the plan as being worthy and worth while. He urged that sectional lines be forgotten and that the people see the vision of a Greater Glendale.

C. C. Cooper, V. M. Hollister, C. E. Neale and A. R. Eastman made brief remarks and pledged their aid.

Attorney Owen Emery talked on organization and team-work and urged that a compact body be formed to further the city's interests. He asserted that an organization was in a position to learn the wishes of the majority and could thus save a lot of time in the handling of projects. He declared that now is the time to plan for a Greater Glendale.

Mr. Thompson, a contractor, asked if the Chamber of Commerce proposed to show opposition to union labor organization. He was assured that such was not the intention and with that understanding signed a pledge card to work in the membership drive.

Edwin F. Kulp inquired as to the details of the reserve membership plan. He pledged his support to the proposed organization.

Roy L. Kent expressed his willingness to help and gave a quotation to the effect that one should have a real vision and the right motive to carry it to a reality.

T. W. Watson, city manager, declared realty values have increased in Glendale by over $4,000,000 and the people should realize this new asset requires some obligations. He declared the need of an active Chamber of Commerce ss great.

Dr. J. E. Eckles, C. D. Lusby and Peter Ferry spoke briefly in support of the proposed plan. Mr. Ferry told of how, when he first came to Glendale, it was necessary to walk in the middle of a dirt road and, at night, carry a lighted lantern.

Plan Revision of By-Laws

The committee announces that immediately following the membership campaign, a sub-committee will be named to revise the Chamber of Commerce by-laws and present them to the entire membership for adoption.

It is also proposed to arrange a comprehensive program of work for the organization, compiled from written suggestions sent in by the members and reserves.

The drive for members will be conducted along organized lines and by a system of cards. Teams will visit certain selected firms and individuals and none others, so that there will be no waste work, as would be the case if the teams free-lanced.

The campaign, it is proposed. will be concluded by the first of March and, it is expected, the organization will have close to 2,000 members and reserves.

It is planned that government be by ten directors, nominated and elected by the entire membership by mail voting, and provision of the referendum. Five associate directors will be appointed annually, as follows: The chairman of the Board of Trustees, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club, president of the Parent-Teachers' Association federation, chairman of the Welfare Board and the city's health officer. Active directors will meet weekly for regular Chamber of Commerce work; the associate directors will meet with them at least once a month on civic or community work.

RED CROSS AIDS

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE GIVES $5,000,000 TO CARE FOR CHILDREN IN EUROPE

The American Red Cross executive committee has appropriated $5,000,000 to carry out its program of furnishing desperately needed medical assistance for children in Europe.

In making this announcement Dr. Livingston Farrand, chairman of the central committee of the Red Cross, said the scope of the society's relief operations in Europe was being altered so it might be confined almost entirely to this work.

"The work which the American Red Cross aims specially to carry on is in the interest of the children who require medical care," he said, "and should not be confused with that of feeding several millions of children who are not afflicted by disease. The general feeding problem is to be met by the European Relief council.

Nearly twenty child relief units of the American Red Cross are already in the field, Dr. Farrand said, most of them in Poland, and ultimately there will be at least a hundred. Plans for the work embrace the Baltic states and to a certain extent, Austria and Hungary, as well as Poland and adjacent countries and Jugo-Slavia.

EDUCATION COST

REPORT IS MADE UPON AMOUNT OF MONEY EXPENDED FOR ELEMENTARY WORK

The total amount of money expended for all purposes in the elementary schools of California in 1920 was $30,516,052.22, an increase of $9,850,913.16, or 47 per cent over 1918, according to State Superintendent of Public Instruction Will C. Wood's biennial report, read before the state board of education.

The total amount expended in the secondary schools for the same period was $15,762,301.17, an increase of $4,330,033.12, or 37 per cent.

The total cost of maintenance in the same period was $24,051,765.37, an increase of 37 per cent in the elementary schools and $13,393,511 in secondary schools, an increase of 23 per cent.

An increase of 52,159 pupils has been recorded for 1920 over 1918, in elementary school enrollment, Wood declared. The elementary school enrollment for 1920 was 580,044.

Secondary school enrollment in 1920 was 162,832, an increase of 35,917 over 1918.

The average daily attendance of elementary schools in 1920 was 387,899, while secondary schools showed an average attendance of 77,594.

The number of teachers employed in the elementary schools in 1920 was 12,565, which exceeds the number employed in 1918 by 985, while those employed in the secondary schools in 1920 was 5794, which is 983 over the number employed in 1918.

RAPID GROWTH

SPECIAL ADULT CLASSES SHOW GREAT INCREASE, ACCORDING TO REPORT SUBMITTED

The rapid growth of the special adult classes in the schools in California is shown in the annual report of Dr. Edwin R. Snyder, commissioner of Industrial and vocational education. In the day and evening classes an increase of 340 per cent in the past five years is claimed.

The enrollment of these students for the term of 1919-1920 numbered 74,409. According to the report, about one-half of those thus enrolled were engaged in studies closely related to their occupations.

In 1919, the report shows, there were 7019 foreign born in attendance upon the evening high schools and the special day and evening classes of the high schools, together with 2582 foreign-born students pursuing courses intended to help them in their naturalization studies. In addition 811 American-born adults pursued advanced cources in citizenship.

FOR FLOAT FUND

SCHOOL CHILDREN WILL SELL TICKETS TO HELP CLEAR AWAY DEFICIT

The committee in charge of the float benefit to be given at Glendale Theatre next Tuesday have placed several hundred tickets among the children in the schools, thus interesting the little citizens of Glendale in this community project as well as the large ones.

The committee feels that the interest of the little citizens of Glendale will not be discouraged by the older citizens who are asked to buy the tickets, but that every one will see the value to the youngsters in the lesson of co-operation and community interest for which the selling of these float matinee tickets gives opportunity.

It's sort of a "killing two birds" with one stone plan: raising money to pay off the indebtedness on the float, and at the same time inculcating in the children the idea of community spirit, say members of the float committee.

OMISSION OF PERIOD CAUSES WRONG PERCENTAGE TO BE GIVEN CITY'S GROWTH

That readers of The Glendale Evening News are quick observers and accurate in figures was demonstrated yesterday, when the omission of a decimal point caused us to give the increase in Glendale's population since March, 1918, as 301½ instead of 30.15 per cent. A high school boy was one of the first to call attention to the error.

In this connection it may be stated that many looked for a much larger population than the figures show on account of the fact that nearly 800 new residences were built in the past year. But the enumerators found that a very large majority of these new houses, especially the costly ones, had been bought and occupied by families of two or three people. Hence, while there was a very large increase in the number of new families, the increase in population was not so marked.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

THE HEAVIEST TAXES

The year of 1921 is still young enough to hearken to some advice of Benjamin Franklin. Said Franklin in his day when taxes were heavy:

"Friends, the taxes are indeed very heavy and if those laid on by the government were the only ones we had to pay, we might more easily discharge them; but we have many others, and much more grievous to some of us. We are taxed twice as much by our idleness, three times as much by our pride, and four times as much by our folly; and from these taxes the commissioners cannot ease or deliver us, by allowing an abatement."

The soundness of the colonial philosopher's statements is too obvious to require comment. It is advice appropriate to our own day. Voluntary idleness, of which there may be less now than a year ago but still much, false pride and folly all contribute to a financial burden which many persons must carry and beside which the taxes, large as they are, seem in contrast as straws.

By sacrificing ease to industry, pride to humility and folly to prudence, the average person can better meet the inevitable taxes of government and the unescapable processes of transition which this nation and the world must undergo before there can be any durable return to normal conditions.

SLICING FEDERAL PAYROLL

Although the departments at Washington are notoriously overmanned, the democratic administration has evinced no willingness to remedy this condition, wherefore the appropriations committee of the house has adopted the businesslike course and refused to provide for paying salaries for the next fiscal year to an amount aggregating more than $11,000,000. Thus the department chiefs will be compelled to reduce their forces and the government will be spared a large unnecessary expense.

No right-minded person can contemplate without regret the ousting from employment on 10,000 or 12,000 men and women, but little hardship will be imposed on those "let out." The committee's recommendation is equivalent to more than five months' notice to the "deadwood" to seek other employment. In that time most of the unnecessary clerks should be able to obtain other jobs. They came to Washington from all sections of the country; they will return to their home states. To the taxpayers the saving will be a considerable item. Beside which, bringing the national payroll within reasonable limits will constitute a beginning of business practice at the seat of government very much desired.

No one has patience with the extravagant and wasteful practices that have been the rule in Washington for a good many months. The people are willing to pay well for necessary work, but they are opposed to handing a living to any who do not earn their keep. With an example of prudent retrenchment set by the government we may expect an increase of bona fide prosperity throughout the country.

SPEED READJUSTMENT

Other agricultural groups have been joined by Kentucky tobacco growers in a decision to hold their products for better prices than are offered. Also, they propose reducing the cultivated area this year with intent further to support prices.

Failure of the experiment insofar as attainment of the ultimate object is concerned is forecast by logic and experience. The immutable law of supply and demand will finally prevail in all markets, although the primary markets are less susceptible of manipulation than are those for goods that have passed through a variety of stages of preparation for consumption.

Even though as a result of this tobacco farmers' strike prices do advance and remain high for the 1921 crop, added profits will induce heavier planting in 1922, with the consequence of a declining market that year. If farmers are not financially able to hold their crops now, this would seem to be the time to let them go for what they will command. They may be able to stand loss at present much better than at a later date. The sooner a painful process is completed the better.

TOO MUCH FEDERAL MEDDLING

Senator France of Maryland has introduced a bill that would provide for uniformity in health regulations for the nation, and in addition would provide jobs for many thousands of persons who would qualify as "health experts."

While the value of better health conditions is not underestimated, the plan is a movement in contravention of the authority and duties of the states, and the effects of such a system would be to strengthen the federal government at the expense of the state governments.

Let the government's health department continue the good work it is doing by way of investigation, and the results of this research work should be made available for use of all the states, as it now is, but it is quite another thing to put the public health in charge of an army of federal appointees, to be exercised regardless of the wishes of the states.

There is a widespread tendency toward federalization, and this is seen in the public health measure and the efforts to bring about a policy of education national in character. There is need of the things which are proposed in these paternalistic measures, but it appears like a serious mistake to attempt to have it done by federal action.

Folk Songs and Jazz

Delegates to the convention of the National Music Teachers' association predict the early demise of jazz. Those who care for good music will shed no tears. About the only defense that can be made of jazz is that it is distinctly American, and pride in a native product may lead some patriots to cling to it affectionately on much the same principle that led the melancholy Jacques in "As You Like It" to say in justification of his love for Audrey: "An ill-favored thing, sir, but mine own."

Another convention, that of the American Folk Lore society, held at the same time as that of the music teachers, brings to mind, however, that there is other music, also distinctively American, and lacking the uncouthness of jazz, which might be cultivated and developed with profit as a substitute for the moribund music of hysterics: The folk songs of the American Negro and the American Indian.

It was the spirituals and the plantaton songs of the Negroes that gave Stephen C. Foster the inspiration for his immortal ballads. It is a field of music that has not yet been completely explored; its possibilities are still far from being exhausted. There is great promise, too, in the field of Indian music.

Indian and Negro folk songs will never become a craze like jazz, but they will continue to be enjoyed long after jazz has been forgotten.

The total number of American soldiers gassed during the world war, excluding marines and sailors, was 70,552, of whom 1221 died and 2853 were discharged as suffering disability from gassing.

Whites to Absorb Them?

The ingenious explanation that they wouldn't have eaten neighbors had beef, mutton or pork been more abundant on the early New Zealand market, stamps the native Maoris as a race with working brains, and their physiques have long been praised. It is not surprising therefore, that, as a correspondent records, these aboriginals are among the few in modern times who, instead of promptly vanishing, will doubtless be absorbed into the white man's family.

Fifty thousand pure-bred Maoris still remain, half of whom are practically civilized. Many have attained to high political position. There are four Maori members in the House of Representatives, two in the Legislative Council and one is an important minister in the executive council.

Themselves Polynesians of remote East Indian blood, these natives, be it added, are not strictly aboriginals. They are thought to have "displaced" a la table d'hote, some 500 years ago a savory stock of Melanesians or Papuans.

A small spirit stove, which will burn liquid fuel and yet may be carried in a bag or pocket without leaking, is a new convenience. The wick is in contact with an asbestos pad into which the spirit soaks by capillary attraction.

NEAR EAST RELIEF

TOPIC TO BE DISCUSSED IN ALL GLENDALE CHURCHES ON COMING SUNDAY

Promising that there will be no collection or offering asked for, but that an appeal will be made for workers, leaders in the Near East relief campaign have secured the use of the local churches next Sunday at the 11 o'clock service to plead the cause of suffering Armenian orphans. So far speakers for the churches are:

Congregational, F. L. Sims, district director; Christian, Rev. M. M. Noacker; Baptist, Rev. R. Warren Mottern; Presbyterian, Judge H. N. Wells, executive secretary; First Methodist, Dr. Dana Bartlett; Tropico Methodist, Dr. Shedd of Occidental college; Tropico Presbyterian, Miss Marie Pilibossian, a native Armenian from Smyrna; West Glendale Methodist, Rev. Boller; North Glendale Methodist, Mrs. Craiger; Episcopal speaker will be provided; New Thought, speaker will be provided.

Seventh-Day Adventist Church

This coming Saturday at 11 o'clock, Dr. Shedd, of Occidental college, will speak in the Seventh-day Adventist church on the Near East relief.

The father of Prof. Shedd lies buried in Turkish Armenia. Dr. Shedd himself was born in that country where for many years his father was an American missionary.

All who can attend this service will hear the story of Armenian injustice and all its suffering and needs from one who knows the conditions.

Consumer in Command

No matter what may be the theories of the financial and economic experts, the ultimate consumer, who is also the individual who pays the bills, knows that he is in command of the situation. For many months he was an easy mark for the profiteers and others engaged in pyramiding prices, but he has reversed himself on that.

Financial and market journals which profess to analyze the situation in industry and business hold to the opinion that the ultimate consumer—the person whose money keeps the wheels moving—is waiting for an actual readjustment of prices before he lets loose of his money.

For the first time in many years the buyers are in command of the situation, and in the main they are withholding from making investments in articles which they do not actually need for their comfort and health. The so-called "orgy of spending" is at an end.

The fact is that the people are making a new appraisement of the dollar. It is coming to be an honest to goodness 100 cent dollar, and they want value received for it. This attitude is a little hard on those persons who are trying to make readjustments to meet conditions, but it can hardly fail to be wholesome finally.

The slump in farm products has caused a "paper" loss of about one billion dollars to the farmers, and until articles which the farmers buy are priced to overcome the larger part of the loss the farmers will "sit tight," as they are well able to do in most cases.

Basic conditions in the United States are sound; there is plenty of money in the banks, in the names of the largest number of depositors in the history of banking in this country. This money will begin to find its way into business-producing channels when prices are right.

Old-Fashioned Stomach

There are so many gee-gaws and new-fangled ways of preparing things to eat these days that the man with an old-fashioned stomach sometimes feels himself distictly out of it.

A friend of ours went home the other night and surprised his wife and scared his children by demanding, in loud and raucous tones, a mess of parched corn. That was 'way after supper, of course, and at the hour when the newspaper had been thoroughly digested and strewn about the floor, lessons all studied, darning done and the evening cigar smoked.

Now this man's wife is a good scout, so she fastened on her apron, took a big slice of 60-cent butter, heated an iron skillet until it was red, almost, and say—the man went out the next day and bought her a set of furs for Christmas.

There are probably dozens of the younger readers of this paper who never even tasted parched corn. Maybe they're just as happy and well off as the youths and maidens of a few years back—yes, just a few years—but we doubt it.

Popcorn, too, has been diverted from the old ways it used to follow. Now you never get it but it's salted. Then, it appeared in big, gleaming balls of whiteness, and 'twas sweet. The stuff was stuck together with clear maple molasses—or if there wasn't any of that, sorghum molasses would do. Popcorn balls and rosy apples, white taffy and ginger snaps, soft cider and doughnuts—they all used to taste pretty good on a winter's evening.

A Seattle woman is colonizing a fertile island about forty miles south of Mazatlan, Mexico, where she has a 7000-acre holding. Twenty-nine farmers and their families from Arizona will sail for the island soon.

ALL-DAY PICNIC

FORMER RESIDENTS OF SOUTH DAKOTA TO HOLD GATHERING ON SATURDAY, JANUARY 22

Former residents of South Dakota who are now residing in Glendale—or residents of that state who may be visiting here—are invited to attend the annual mid-winter all-day picnic at Sycamore Grove, in Los Angeles, on Saturday, January 22.

The gathering will be held under the auspices of the South Dakota State society of which D. H. Latham is president and J. A. Walton is vice-president. The secretary is James S. Bishop.

Former Governor Vessey of South Dakota will make an address; Mrs. E. W. Stillwell, formerly of Vermillion, S. D., will read an original poem, and music will be furnished by vocalists and a military drum corps.

New Movie Invention

If a new motion picture camera fulfills all the claims made for it in the dispatch from Chicago, where an apparently successful demonstration of its work was given, the goal at which producers and others connected with the "movie" business have been aiming ever since the "movies" became popular has been reached at last, and the inventor, a Swede, stands in a fair way to win a fortune.

His machine, it is said, causes objects in the pictures to seem to stand out in the same perspective as if they were real. The pictures present the appearance of possessing depth, and not mere flatness; they seemingly have three dimensions. The same effect is obtained in looking at pictures through a stereoscope, an instrument that once was found in many homes, where it was used as an amusement device.

It is claimed for the new invention that it does away with the flicker of motion pictures and so causes less strain to the eyes. This alone is sufficient to commend it.

Combating Bandits

A Cincinnati bank announces that employes will be given target practice with revolvers, as a precaution against bandits, and a range has been located in the basement of the bank. The plan adopted by this bank may serve as a suggestion for other institutions likely to be visited by bandits—for none of these public utilities seem to be overlooked by the banditry.

Even the daylight robber is a coward at heart. He will not take any chance on having his precious carcass penetrated by a piece of cold lead. Banks are robbed and other thefts committed under conditions most favorable to the robbers. It may have sounded a bit cold-blooded for the Chicago chief of police to take bandits to the morgue instead of to the police station, but it should not be forgotten that these daylight robbers do not hesitate to shoot to kill if they are interrupted.

If it should become generally known that banks and other places so attractive to the daylight robbers have employes who are able to pull a good trigger, the knowledge might have the effect of reducing the number of robberies. Funerals of persons who go around panhandling with guns are entirely too few.

EVANS SPEAKER

LOCAL MAN MAKES TALK AT RATIFICATION GATHERING FOR W. F. LINEBERGER

W. E. Evans of Glendale was one of the speakers at the ratification meeting held in Long Beach last Tuesday night for Major Walter F. Lineberger, candidate for congress in the ninth district, which includes this city. The meeting was the opening of the campaign in Long Beach for Major Lineberger. Long Beach is his home city.

The office force of the Los Angeles county registrar of voters is making preparations for the special congressional election to be held on February 15. The board of supervisors has authorized an appropriation of $6,000 for the pre-election expenses in the registrar's office.

The estimate is made that the election will cost the county close to $50,000 and the $6000 was advanced to put in condition ballot boxes and poll equipment and to purchase paper for the official ballots.

Statistics on Divorce

Perhaps no one was amazed when Prof. Rudolph M. Binder of Columbia university announced the other day that only one farmer in ninety-two is divorced. Nor was much surprise occasioned when he added that one traveling salesman in nine has a legal separation from his wife.

For the man who sticks home most is the tiller of the soil. And the unfortunate most surely doomed to see his family only occasionally is the "drummer." If a man knows his family well, the figures seem to say, he will stick by it, and his wife and children will surely cling to him. But if their acquaintance is the passing matter of a week-end, one out of nine will prove unequal to the strain.

There is a little sermon in every sentence of the professor's report. But perhaps the most significant one is this: "Childless couples are divorced more frequently than those having children."
